Memory Lane

Remember When...

We came to Weaver and we all got lost

Freshmen Pep Rally

Everyone was in a clique with a stupid name

Freshmen and Sophomore years were fashion shows

Sista Soulja broke it down for all the ladies

Every Senior guy wanted a Freshmen girl

"Fresh Meat"

Drama was the real issue

The substitute got his little finger cut off in the door on friday
the 13th

Everyone who went to junior prom went all out

Weezy and Mr. Tallman passed on

Memory Lane

We made the PEP RALLY the it of '05

Weaver finally beat Bloomfield

"Lake George"

The football players could have gotten away with murda

Every female had the knee high Timbs

Mr. Stringer had "ENOUGH"

You heard everybody's business when you went to the nurse

Ms. Newman's office was the spot to chill

ECKO

Weaver got put on the MAP

Singal di plane-scooby doo-thunder clap -rockaway,brought out the jamican in all of us

Junior Prom Place

Despite a small turnout, it was a night
to remember!

We know
we're hot...

Prom King on the dance floor!

Spirit Week Walk

All signs pointed to Hartford High's demise in the big game!

Beaver Boulevard

It is safe to say that the Underclassmen didn't have a chance of outshining the Seniors during Spirit Week. From dressing in pajamas to cheering in the pep rally the seniors had this competition in the bag!

Daniel Drive

Born and raised in the north end of hartford. Daniel is now a film and television actor ,a motivational speaker,and a musical performer, he has appeared in movies such as A Long Walk Home, The Other Sister,and the NBC sitcom City Guys. Daniel has formed and started an independent entertainment company called, Five by Seven. He was very inspiring and we loved having him join us!

Daniel stayed after the show and greeted the students and even posed for some pictures. It was great to have him back at Weaver!

Black History Month Mansion

Top: A wonderful gospel choir sang for some lucky students and gave inspiration to all through their uplifting songs!

Above and Right: Mr. Epps and a guest drummer demonstrated the techniques of African Drumming to a large audience that clapped along.

Below: Oral Jumpp, Rashia Tyson, and others are led through a drum beat and show off their skills to the crowd!

African drumming combines custom made instruments with varied hits of the hand and palms to create different sounds and beats.

This was a great chance for students to learn the art of drumming first-hand... and they were all really impressive!

Homecoming Highway

Rashia and Speedy were crowned King and Queen at homecoming and had
their dance together...
they looked great!
Everyone did that night!

Talent/Fashion Show

All the performers did a great job and they had an audience of over 1,000 to show off to! As you can see the models definitely had a good time working the runway that night too!

Showing off!

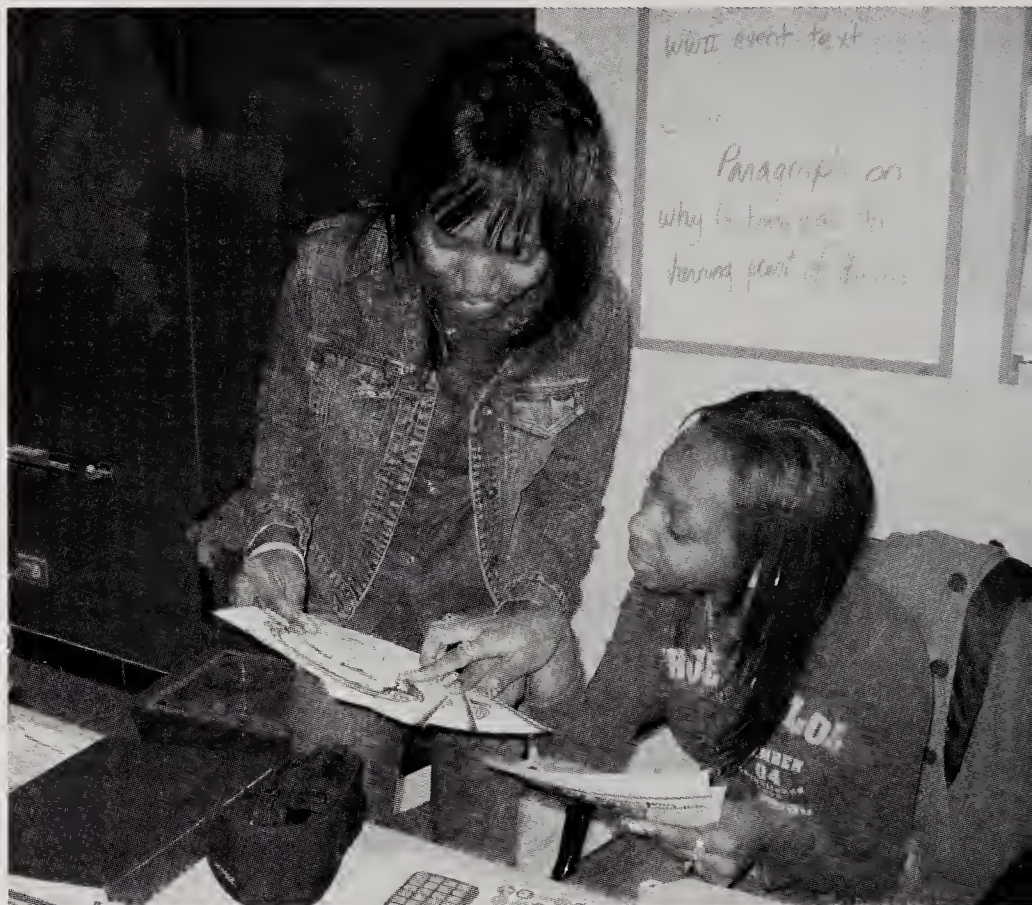

Some amazing songs were done acapella and there were plenty of dance groups that came to show off their moves.

The most important thing is that everyone had fun, from Yolanda and Taneka on the runway to Fairlena and Shelby showing off some talent.

Yearbook Staff

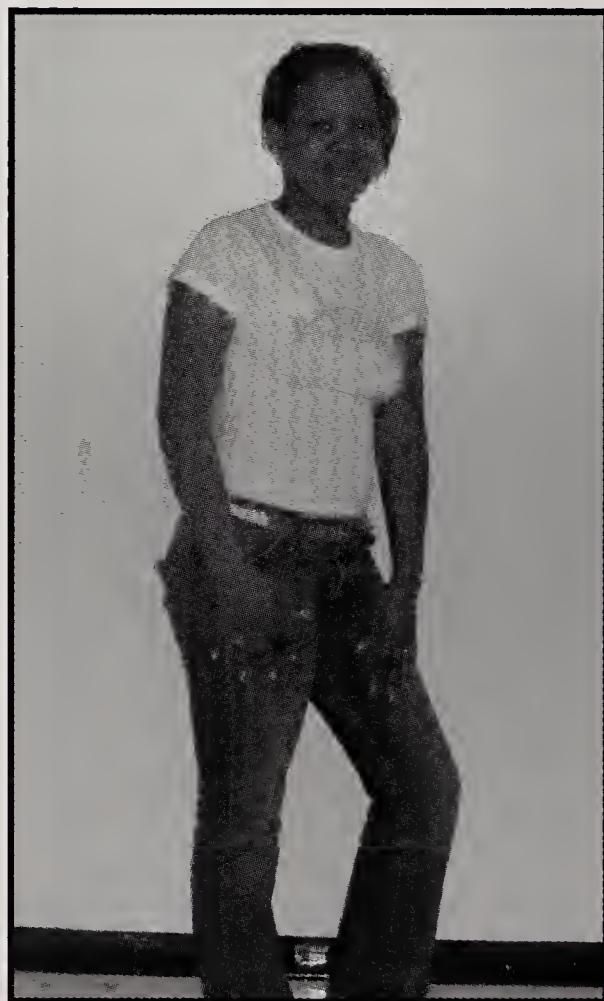

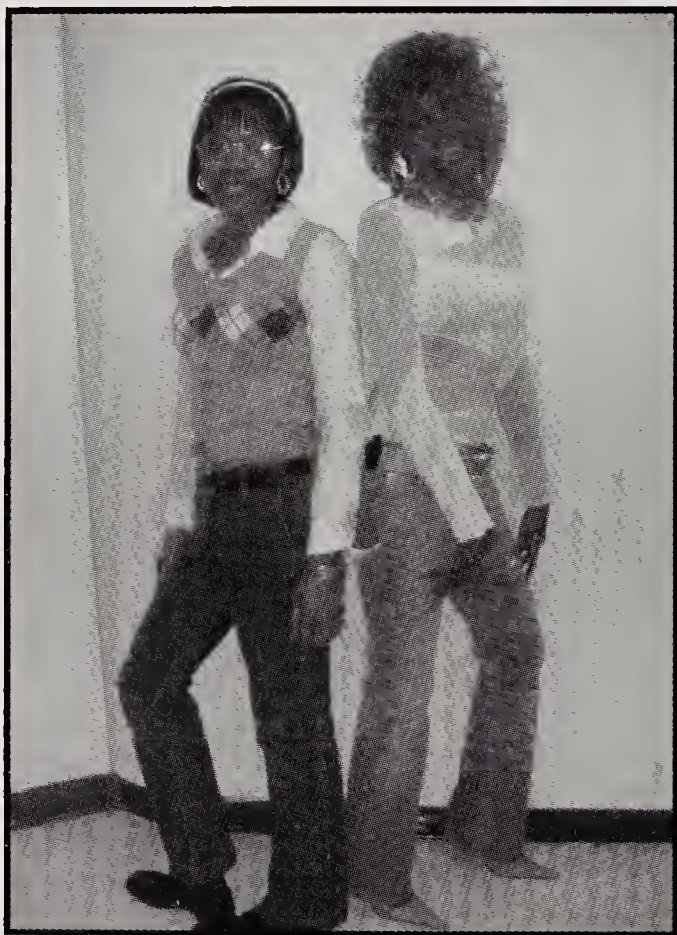

Our small but very dedicated yearbook staff did a great job this year. Thanks to Nicole and Crystal! You two are solely responsible for the success of this book! I hope you had fun!

The boys track team was filled with individual stars like Asaph Schwapp and Shawn Watson. What was even more impressive was how well the team worked together and pushed each other to succeed. Their hard work and discipline allowed them to do great things. As a result of that hard work the men ran some very impressive times this season. They were also tough competitors in the field events!

Girls Indoor Track

The girls indoor track team had a very exciting season. Strong Seniors on the team like Tiffany Carrington and some up-and-coming Juniors like Lisa Watson and her partners in the sprint relays led the team to success and record-breaking times!
